ONE of the most entertaining of entertainments was given last night by the Thalla Dramatic Association. The audience was large and appreciative, and the exercises bespoke great talent among its membors. The opening address, by Mr. Patrick Tully, the recitations by Mr. A. G. W. Whitford and Misses E. Nietert and Gambs, were all well delivered and carefully selected. The quarrel scene between Brutus and Cassius in Julius Clesar, by Messrs. Burus and DeRose, was well converved and successfully rendered. The "Pathettick Owed," an original comic recitation, by Mr. B. Smith, created continued rounds of appliause and laughter. The instrumental and vocal portions of the programme also deserve particular marries and less the programme also deserve the The instrumental and vocal portions of the programme also deserve particular mention, and last, but not least, the farce of "Ici On Parle Francais," with Messrs. broken main and silled the cistorn. Mr. gathered in is at Seltuate. The moss gathered in is at Seituate. The moss grows on the sunken rocks near the coast. Long rakes are used in tilling this marine farm, and it does not take long to fill the many dories that await the lichen, torn from its salty, rocky bed. Purples and browns, maroons, blacks, yellows, and dull, dark reds, gleam and glisten in the sunlight. Airy fronds, too delicate to grow in the open air, they spread their lace-like shapes under the soft water, far down in the quiet, bethey spread their lace-like shapes under the soft water, far down in the quiet, below the foam and roar of the sea. Every rock and boulder is covered with moss. The husbands and fathers gather the moss from the sea, and the wives and daughters prepare it for market by a peculiar and yet simple process. Soak it in water and it meits away into jelly. Boil it with mitk, and a delicious, white and creamy blanc-mange is the result. But this mossing is a hard life. It's wet and cold in the boat, the sand of the beach is hot and burning, and the washing-tubs are hard on the back. The moss business at Scituate was started in 1849, by a resident of the place. At tuat time business at Scituate was started in 1849, by a resident of the place. At that time the demand for the article was limited, but it has now increased to an annual product of ten thousand barrels, and brings $40,000 into the town, which sum is shared by some one hundred and thirty families. Its consumption in the manufacture of lager is very large, and the entire beer interests in the country draws its supplys from Scituate beaches. draws its supplys from Scituate beaches, as the importation from Ireland has almost ceased. While other articles of their kind are largely adulterated, Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and True Flavoring Extracts, Vanilla, Lemon, Nectarine, etc., hold their unshaken position in the estimation of thousands as the purest, best, most reliable, and cheapest. In all particulars that constitute perfect results they can not be approached by the various known Baking Powders and Flavoring Extracts made in imitation. One trial will satisfy that for purity and strength Dr. Price's are alone in the market.
